An Extraordinary June Event!

This Event has never had a parallel. Even our own greatest last year's effort is overshadowed. We have assembled all the broken assortments of Organdy, Corded Lawn, Dimity, Brocade Lawn and every other new and pretty weave that has come to us this season—not a single piece has escaped the bargain dragnet. The entire gathering will be placed on sale to-morrow at less than half the original price. This great event concerns upwards of 4000 yards of Wash Goods, 12 1/2c. qualities, at 6c. a yard.

The very newest and daintiest plaids, stripes and floral designs in all the charming color combinations are shown in this vast assembly. Surely, it is an opportunity that every woman within getting-here distance should take advantage of. In connection with this truly phenomenal offering

We will show the following extraordinary attractions:—

1,142 yards of Regular 25c. Woven Dotted Swiss Mulls—mostly dark grounds with white and colored figures—3 to 10 yards in each piece—at 5c. a yard.

A WEEK IN SOCIETY

Miss Spillman, of Richmond, is at Virginia Beach.

Miss Sophia White, of Richmond, is visiting Miss Bessie Doyle in Ghent.

Mr. and Mrs. Janon Fisher, of Baltimore, have opened their handsome cottage at the Beach, and have as their guests Mrs. Fisher's sister, Miss Leone and Miss Mordica, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Gardiner, of Washington.

Miss Sarah Harris is at home again after two months spent in North Carolina.

Mr. Harry Bell, of Augusta, Ga., is visiting at his old home in the country.

Mr. Hugh Mercer attended the finals at William and Mary College last week.

Miss Elizabeth Minstree, of Washington, is the guest of Miss Mary Lou Gray in Bute street.

Miss Marianne Meade and Miss Stanley Atkins, who have been at the Beach for several weeks, have returned to their home in Richmond.

Miss Nina Dewey has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Bachelor, in Baltimore.

Miss Cleary, of Washington, who has been visiting Miss Reeves, on Freeman street, has returned home.

Mrs. Robert Baldwin has returned from a visit to Baltimore.

Mrs. W. Lane Kelley, of Norfolk, was one of the chaperones at the final ball of the Virginia Military Institute last Tuesday night.

Miss Nan Freeman entertained her friends Friday evening in a manner most charming. One of the new street cars had been chartered for the occasion and was profusely decorated in flags and bunting. Arriving at the Ocean View depot, a private car was boarded and soon these happy young people were gaily dancing in the ball room of that popular resort. At 11 o'clock the party left Ocean View and returned to the home of Miss Freeman, where delightful refreshments were served. These who made up this jolly party were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Freeman, Miss Samuel Lloyd, Miss Susan Payne, Miss McIntire, of Washington; Miss Mary Lou Gray, Misses Mary and Alice Cooke, chaperones, and Misses Mary and Fannie Hester, guests of honor, the party being given to them; Misses Mary Bayler, Louise Jones, Jean Cooke, Virginia Downer, Annie and Carrie Volght, Katherine Newbill, Carolyn Cohn, Mary Duncan, Addie Pigman, Hattie and Myrd Page, Alice Williams, Charlotte Taylor, Lucy Hardy, Ellen Bell, Charlotte Herbert, Melissa Payne, Corbelle McBlair, Jean Reeves, Lela Henson, Eloise Waldrup, Edna Thorpe, Nan Freeman, Messrs. Davis Jordan, Richard Burroughs, Carson Dobie, Allan Fetebebe, Lane Kelly, Wickham Taylor, John B. Taylor, Richard Waldrup, Willie Burwell, John Williams, Horatio Cook, Lloyd Freeman, George and Eugene Payne, Frank Murden, Robert Payne, Tom Hume, Peyton Hamer, Walter Percy Gray and Ralph Jones.

Miss Anna Baker, of Tarboro, who has been the guest of Miss Nancy Freeman, on York street, has returned home.

Miss Addie Pigman will entertain her friends at a dance to-morrow evening at her home at Port Norfolk.

Misses Katherine and Louise Payne, who have been visiting Mrs. Williams, in Ghent, left on Saturday for the Eastern Shore.

Mr. Thomas W. Shelton entertained a party of friends very delightfully Saturday evening at the Country Club. The occasion was a dinner party given in honor of Miss Maria Williams, of Richmond. Those who accepted Mr. Shelton's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williams and Miss Williams, of Richmond; Miss Lela Garnett, Miss Ida Gordon, Miss Elizabeth Martin, Dr. E. E. Feldt, Mr. Thomas W. Tanner, Mr. Frances Taylor and Mr. George Sanderson.

Miss Janette Whitfield, who has been the guest of Mrs. L. J. Jordan, on Charlotte street, left last week for her home in Jackson, N. C.
